It is getting exciting... If the Democrats get control of the Whitehouse, the Congress, and the Senate, which looks as if will be the case by the end of the day (Wednesday 01/06/21), the United States of America will finally be in the final stages of being "Fundamentally Changed." Very quickly, the U.S. will be on a "Fast Track" to Socialism, with Communism following close behind. Changing America has been the mantra of the Democrats for decades, and it looks like they will finally have the unstoppable power to do just that... and this time, rest assured, they will! As a Christian and Eschatologist, this is exciting! You might be a bit curious as to why a "Christian" would be excited to see this nation on the verge of such a radical change, so I will tell you why... Prophecy! Before I get into that, I have to ask a question, and I want everyone reading this to think hard about the answer... I will premise the question with the following: The United States of America, since its birth as a nation, has been the "Envy" of the world. Many may contest that statement, but if you took a survey of everyone in the world, asking them, "Of all the countries in the world you could live in, which country would you pick?" I guarantee the majority would say, "The United States." The reason for this is because, despite its shortcomings, (The U.S.A. is not perfect) the majority of the world believes there is more freedom and opportunity in the U.S. than anywhere in the world. Contrary to popular belief, there is less "Racism" in the U.S.A. than anywhere in the world! In addition to that, there are few other places in the world where people can practice any religion they choose (Including Satanism) without fear of imprisonment, injury, or death (At least for now). The big question I ask all of you is, "Why would anyone want to change a country with these freedoms?" There is a big push for Socialism and Communism, especially in the Democratic Party here in the U.S. but have the Democrats and their followers considered that Socialistic, and Communistic countries have fences and walls on their borders, not to keep people out, but rather to keep the people in! What does this say to you?

My neighbor is Cuban; his Grandfather was in a Cuban prison for 17 years! His crime was that He was a Christian Pastor! This is already starting to happen here! There are many instances of Pastors here in the U.S., being arrested, and there are many instances over recent years of churches being "padlocked" for various reasons. Of course, many of these stories are suppressed, and for good reason... it exposes what is really going on, and who is really behind it all. (True Christians Know) Yes, there will be a fundamental change here in the U.S.A. and it has been well under way for decades. Some of the signs came into light in the 1960's, when prayer and the Bible was taken out of our schools, followed by God, and His Word, being banished from all levels of government and eventually from much of the public sector. Many people have been fired from their jobs because of their religious beliefs, even for statements they made not at work, but from their own homes... on "their own time!" What is the "End Game" of all of this? When Bill Clinton was elected president, there were similar fears and predictions of the demise of America, but America survived, so what is different now? America has survived many swings to the "Radical Left" before, so again, why is now any different? The reasons are many, but I will focus on just a few. First, is the "Moral State" of the people. Here in America, the morality of the population has never been as bad as it is today. Never before have Christians, and entire Churches been as "Carnal" (Influenced by the secular world) as they are today. There are many obvious reasons for this, but the fact remains that the U.S.A. is very different (Spiritually) than during the "Clinton Years". Another big contributing factor is the secularization and control of both education, and of the media. Never before has there been more control of what people see, hear, and read; and never before has the educational system been as biased as it is today with the "Biblical Worldview" being forbidden in any discussion of moral issues.

How can all of this be exciting to me as a Christian? Those of you reading this, which are familiar with my writings, know my main focus is on the prophetic side of the Bible. (Approximately 1/3 of the Bible is Prophetic) Most churches and pastors downplay prophesy these days and interestingly, that in is self is a fulfillment of Bible prophesy!

2 Peter 3:3-4 (NKJV) ³ knowing this first: that scoffers will come in the last days, walking according to their own lusts, ⁴ and saying, "Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of creation."

The scoffers can scoff all they want... people made fun of Noah too... that is, before it started to rain. One thing I have learned in studying the Bible since 1972 is that if the Bible says something is going to happen... it is going to happen! Also... if the Bible says something did happen... it did! All the "Debunkers" are eventually themselves, debunked. I believe we are living in the "Last Days" as I see all the warning signs given in the Bible taking place all around me. Yes, some of the signs have been around for a while but only by God's grace as He is not willing that any should perish.

2 Peter 3:9 (NKJV)

⁹ The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance.

As for the significance of the recent elections, many people have asked, "Is the United States in Bible prophecy"? The Bible mentions that in the end there will be a time when all the nations of the world will come against Israel. Presently the U.S. is Israel's best ally in the world, but as the Bible mentions this "final battle," there is no mention of any nation siding with Israel, no mention of a great ally! God alone saves Israel from total destruction in such a way that there is no question of God's involvement. Where is the U.S. during this time? In my opinion, either the United States will no longer exist, (at least as a significant world power), or the U.S. will be in so much turmoil or disarray and have so many issues of its own, it will be in no position to help. Perhaps the military will be so depleted it will be strictly a defensive force. Time will tell... but I can see this happening as I look at what Socialism and Communism has done to other countries, which were once powerful forces in the world. Once again... time will tell, but if you are one of those "Scoffers," I would do a little more study and observation if I were you. If I am wrong, well... consider that a blessing, as you may have more time to repent and turn to God. If I am correct... time is getting short for you. Today is the Day of Salvation. Consider this... your next breath may be your last!
